

SCHOLARSHIPS FOR SEMESTER PROGRAMME IN CORPORATE SUSTAINABILITY AND ECOLOGICAL FOOTPRINT

KULTURSTUDIER

Buenos Aires, Argentina

Open to all Argentina nationals

Deadline: 1 November for spring semester / 1 June for autumn semester

Due to Covid-19 the study program and scholarship program has been cancelled for the Spring semester of 2021. We will be back again for the autumn semester of 2021.

The Norwegian organisation Kulturstudier (Culture Studies) and Amartya are offering 16-week scholarships to Argentina nationals wishing to attend the university undergraduate course Corporate sustainability and footprint in Buenos Aires. The program is offered in cooperation with la Universidad Nacional de San Martin, Buenos Aires and is a full time semester study.

For information about the course, see <http://www.kulturstudier.com/csr-corporate-social-responsibility>.

The programme is suitable for:

- Students who wish to include the programme in Corporate sustainability and footprint as a part of a bachelor degree.
- Professionals (teachers, diplomats, NGO workers, etc.) and others who seek further education in CSR issues.

Programme period:

The Spring term in Argentina will begin in February and end in May and autumn term will begin in August, and ends in December. The sixteen weeks in Buenos Aires is preceded by four weeks of self-study.

The Scholarship includes:

- Tuition fees

Requirements:

The applicants are required to hand their Curriculum Vitae (CV) and a motivation letter. The motivation letter in English should be approximately 500 words, answering the following questions:

- What makes you a good candidate for the course?
- Why do you wish to study Corporate sustainability and footprint?
- What part do you envisage the course will play in your future career/work/life plans?

Finalists may be contacted to submit an essay on a topic of our choosing.

Scholarship holders must document minimum 1 year of completed university studies and must be tested for their English proficiency prior to the semester (see appendix, pt 2).

To apply for the scholarship, or for further information, please contact Kulturstudier at cursos@amartya.org and put "Corporate sustainability and footprint Scholarship" as the subject of the e-mail.

* We advise the applicant to check in advance with his/her university if these credits are transferable, as this might be different from faculty to faculty.

Formal admission requirements from Vestfold University College

Successful candidates must send the required documents to mail@kulturstudier.no as soon as possible after they are selected.

1 Scholarship students must document their completion of minimum 1 year university studies

This is documented by diplomas and/or transcripts from your university. The diploma/transcript must be in English. The best solution is if you can get an English translation directly from your university. Otherwise you must send in a copy of your original document and an English translation done by an authorized translator.

2 Successful candidates must be tested for their English proficiency prior to the semester and before being accepted into the programme. If you do not already have one of the accepted tests (see list below) Kulturstudier will cover your test fee if you are accepted into the programme.

NB! English tests must be taken as soon as possible after the selection, and on December 1/June 1 the latest. Test scores are sent to mail@kulturstudier.no.

You can take one of the following tests:

- Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL) with a minimum score of 500 for a paper-based test, a score of at least 170 for a computer-based test or minimum 60 for an internet-based test
- International English Language Testing Service (IELTS) with a minimum score of 5.0.
- Advanced Placement International English Language examination (APIEL) with a minimum score of 3
- University of Cambridge examinations: First Certificate in English, Certificate in Advanced English or Certificate of Proficiency in English.

You are exempted from taking the test if you have:

- Completed one year at university in an English-speaking country (Australia, Canada, Ireland, New Zealand, United Kingdom, USA), provided that the language of instruction was English.
- Completed university education where the subject English comprised the main component of the course of study.
- Obtained a Bachelor's degree with English as the language of instruction.

TOEFL and IELTS-tests are the most popular English tests and can be taken relatively frequently at a number of venues in Argentina. See the overview below to find a test close to where you live:
